

Dr. Llewellyn St. Aubyn Adrian Peter: A Humble Maestro of Music and Education

Dr. Llewellyn St. Aubyn Adrian Peter embodies the quiet strength and humble dedication that defines a true steward of music and education. His journey, a gentle melody of academic pursuit and heartfelt performances, reflects a profound reverence for the art form and an earnest desire to inspire others.

Harmony in Education:

Llewellyn's educational journey began with a love for music theory and piano performance, earning certificates from esteemed institutions such as The Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music and Trinity College, London, England. His academic pursuits led him to Roberts Wesleyan University for a Bachelor of Science in Music Education/Piano and later to Nazareth University of Rochester, NY, for a Master of Science in Education in Music Education/Piano. Seeking to broaden his horizons, he pursued additional studies in administration and supervision at Lipscomb University in Nashville, TN. He completed his Doctorate in Education degree in Leadership and Professional Practice from Trevecca Nazarene University.

Melodies Across Continents:

Llewellyn's music has touched hearts across continents, from intimate gatherings to grand concert halls. Whether performing for audiences in the United States, Canada, the Caribbean, or Europe, he approaches each performance with humility and gratitude. Noteworthy engagements include a memorable concert at the Armed Forces Base in Ramstein, Germany, and a private performance for the esteemed Oprah Winfrey in 2004.

Educational Crescendo:

In the classroom, Llewellyn's passion for music shines through his dedication to teaching and mentorship. His career as a music educator has taken him to institutions such as the Rochester City School District, Fisk University, and Pearl-Cohn Entertainment Magnet High School. He also served as a Dean of Students at Hattie Cotton Elementary Magnet School and John Early Museum Magnet Middle School in Nashville, TN. Currently, he humbly contributes as the Site Coordinator for the Magnet School Assistance Program at Isaiah T. Creswell Middle Magnet School of the Visual and Performing Arts.

Symphony of Recognition:

Llewellyn's contributions to music education have earned him recognition from peers and organizations alike, including Who's Who Among American Teachers and the National Conference of Community and Justice Middle School Educator of the Year. His inaugural piano project, "Songs That My Mama Taught Me," is a humble tribute to the music that has shaped his life and career.

The Maestro's Legacy:

Dr. Llewellyn St. Aubyn Adrian Peter's journey through music and education is a gentle reminder of the profound impact one can have through humility and dedication. His expertise in music consulting, coupled with his genuine love for teaching and mentoring, makes him a cherished figure in the world of music. With humility as his guiding light, Llewellyn's legacy continues to inspire generations of musicians and educators alike.
